TEXT:

Organized Crime, 10th edition, Howard Abadinsky, Wadsworth Publishing, Belmont, California, 2013. Required.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. Study the history and structure of organized crime in the U.S. and throughout the world.
2. Examine the various organized criminal enterprises in existence today.
3. Consider methods used by law enforcement to combat organized crime.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Attend class regularly.
2. Read assigned material and come to class prepared.
3. Participate in class discussions and activities.
4. Graded assignments:

EXAMINATIONS: 3 section exams containing a mix of objective and short-essay questions. Students will be tested on material covered in class lectures and discussions, videos, handouts, and the textbook. Students may refer to their notes during the exams. Each section exam is worth 25% of the student's final grade. Tentative dates for exams are listed below.

PROJECT: Virtual OC: Task Force – Mexico. Each student will be assigned to a group. Each group will represent a virtual version of a federal task force established to evaluate and respond to the growing threat to the U.S. from Mexican drug cartels and the violence associated with their activities. At the end of the semester, each group will submit a written report and make an in-class presentation of its findings and recommendations. The presentations and completed written assignments are due on the dates listed in the course schedule.

Additional information about this project will be provided in class.

This project will be worth 25% of the student's final grade, with these points apportioned as follows:

Written report – 15 points

Presentation – 10 points

Attendance at group meetings – 4 additional points (1 point per meeting, up to a maximum of 4)

Each group will be allotted some class time on a regular basis so that members may confer about the ongoing project. However, students should expect to do most of their work on this project outside of class.

MAKEUP EXAMS: Each student may make up ONE of the section exams. Make-ups will be given ONLY during the time reserved for final exams, on the date and time listed in the Course Schedule. These exams will not be identical to the ones given during the semester, but will be in the same format and will cover the same material.

LATE SUBMISSIONS: All written assignments are due at the start of class on the date listed in the course schedule, and are considered late thereafter. Late submissions will be penalized 10 points per calendar day.

No “extra credit” assignments will be given. Any student requesting extra credit work will be “whacked”.

GRADING: The final grade will be assigned as a letter grade, based on the following scale:

A = 90 – 100 points

B = 80 – 89 points

C = 70 – 79 points

D = 60 – 69 points

F = 59 points and below

A grade of Incomplete will be given only in rare circumstances, for good cause shown, such as a serious illness that precludes completion of the course. An Incomplete will not be given solely for failure to complete assignments on time. The instructor and the department chair shall have sole discretion in granting an Incomplete grade.

Grades, announcements, and schedule changes will be posted on Vista. Students are urged to check their Vista site regularly.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: Every KSU student is responsible for upholding the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct, as published in the Undergraduate and Graduate Catalogs. Section III of the Student Code of Conduct addresses the University's policy on academic honesty, including provisions regarding plagiarism and cheating, unauthorized access to University materials, misrepresentation/falsification of University records or academic work, malicious removal, retention, or destruction of library materials, malicious or intentional misuse of computer facilities and/or services, and misuse of student identification cards. Incidents of academic misconduct will be handled through the established procedures of the University Judiciary Program, which may include an informal resolution by a faculty member resulting in a grade adjustment or a formal hearing procedure, which may subject the student to the minimum one-semester suspension required by the Code of Conduct.

Cheating or plagiarism in any form will result in a grade of F for the course. In addition, a report of the incident will be filed with the Office of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity.

USE OF ELECTRONIC DEVICES: Students are not permitted to use cell phones or other electronic devices during class. Laptop computers may be used ONLY for the purpose of taking notes. The instructor reserves the right at any time to observe the screen content of any laptop used during class. If content other than class notes is visible, the student will be required to shut off the laptop and will not be allowed to use it in class thereafter.
